What is HTG?

High Tech Gays is a social organization of gay people who consider themselves part of the high tech work force of the Santa Clara Valley, the largest concentration of high tech people in the country.

While our sexual orientation is not related to our professions, it is still true that most of us are closeted while at work. There is nothing wrong with this, but wouldn't it be nice if we didn't have to keep a low profile because we were afraid of our jobs or our promotions?

High Tech Gays has as one of its purposes to educate high-tech employers that gays do occupy professional and other key positions in their companies and are making vital contributions. Until our workplaces are truly open, we need the support and counsel of our peers.

High Tech Gays meets monthly for pot luck suppers and business meetings, and nearly as often for other social activities. These help us to form a network of friends in a wide range of companies and disciplines.

We publish a monthly newsletter which frequently features articles on specific companies and what their attitudes are towards gays in the workplace. We are a forum for airing views and sharing experiences.

We are not a "partying club" nor an "activist group" but a meeting place where socializing, education and activism can balance to meet the needs of Silicon Valley's high-tech gays.
