

Rancho Cicada Camping Trip, June 29 - July 1, 1990

This will be our 4th trip to Rancho Cicada, which is one of our most popular trips. If you haven't been there, Rancho Cicada is a very secluded, private camp located near Plymouth on the Cosumnes River. It's a great place to swim (in any of several nearby swimming holes), sunbathe, hike, play croquet or just relax.

For those of you who don't like to "rough it" when camping, Rancho Cicada provides tents on platforms (some of which have mattresses), flush toilets, showers and electric outlets for your hair dryer. The camp also has resident alarm clocks (a flock of pea fowl). At this time of year, the peacocks should be in full glory with their tail feathers.

We're trying something a little different this trip. Instead of the usual mealtime mayhem and barbecue battles where everyone tries to cook their food at the same time, HTG will provide the food for all of the meals. We're providing the food, but everyone will be expected to pitch in to prepare it. There will be sign up sheets posted at the camp for all of the duties from food preparation to dishwashing. The tentative menu is listed below. If you have special dietary restrictions, please contact Steve to make special arrangements. All you need to bring are your beverages and any snack foods you may want.

The cost of the weekend is *$50 for members and $60 for nonmembers. To sign up, fill out the "Rancho Cicada Sign Up Slip" and place it, with a check payable to HTG, in the Activities Box; or mail it to Steve Weirauch (3294 Mt. Logan Dr., San Jose, CA 95127, (408) 272-5555). Maps and additional information will be provided to those who have signed up.

Spaces are limited, so sign up now.
